

I would like to thank the 19 members who came out on April 17th for the annual spring clean up. A huge thank you goes to Mr. and Mrs. David Davis for cleaning the seats of the club carts, not an easy project. There is a list of the names posted on the bulletin board in the hallway.

As of May 1st 2010 smoking will be prohibited in most public places in the State of Michigan, including, but not limited to, restaurants, bar, bowling alleys, and many others. Smoking will not be permitted in the club house or on the new deck since it is an extension of the service area. We will be working on ways to accommodate our smoking members.

In efforts to generate more guest play the board has lowered the price of greens fees from $32 to $20 for 18 holes and from $16 to $10 9 holes. Now is the time to invite your friends to see our beautiful course which Casey has in top condition.

MCC is again working with Marshall City Recreation to offer a junior golf camp this summer. Last season we had thirty youngsters from 7-16 participating with over fifteen members volunteering to make the camp possible. The Recreation Dept will be handling registration as part of their spring-summer programs. MCC members will receive a discounted rate for their children and grandchildren's participation. Contact the Rec. Dept for more information- recpro.cityofmarshall.org or 781-5166. Program flyers are also available at the clubhouse.

Session A-June 22-25 (Participation per session-8 min.-24 max) Session B-July 20-23

More than 100 members and guest enjoyed a fun-filled exciting Derby Day at MCC Sat May 1. The committee of John and Ann Miller, John and Sherry Anderson and Bill and Norma Church did an outstanding job of turning the club into Churchill Downs with betting windows, mint juleps and wide-brimmed hats galore! Our thanks to them for all their hard work!!

The board would like to welcome new golf members Mr. Alex Tater, Dr. Lawrence Penrod, Mr. & Mrs. Shaun O'Leary, Mr. & Mrs. Rick Hammond, Mr. & Mrs. Don Rollo, Mr. & Mrs. Greg Peters, Mr. & Mrs. Roger Caswell, and new social members Mr. & Mrs. Charles Griffin
